ABOUT THE AREA

NoLo is the neighborhood that the Milanese have passed through at least once in their lives, partly by chance and partly out of curiosity. Located halfway between the northern section of the red and green metro, it is distributed between the Martesana canal, the right side of the Central Station and via Leoncavallo. Officially born two years ago, it is an area north of Milan full of potential and cultural richness. A destination for street artists and street art enthusiasts, in recent years it has been redeveloped with various initiatives that have made it a central district in the urban reflection of the city of Milan.
